

Flavored Arch

I have to taste the rainbow, but I can't get there. I have driven for hours, getting closer and closer, but always just out of reach.

The candy packaging shows what the flavors are, but I know they are only synthesized versions. I desire the real thing.

Wikipedia says that I need a lasso, bucket, knives, a fork and maybe a straw (depending on weather).

Wait....what's that? Am I finally at the end? I am! I made it!

No, I don't want any of your fake gold, just gimme a slice of violet.

Mmmm, oh my God, that's fresh rainbow!
